

The diagram illustrates a mechanical assembly with multiple chambers and clamps. A central vertical channel is flanked by two larger chambers. On the left, there are two horizontal sections. On the right, there is a vertical section. Clamps, represented by mechanical icons, are positioned at various points along the vertical channel and the horizontal sections. Arrows indicate the direction of flow or movement. The word "CLAMP" is used as a label with arrows pointing to specific clamp locations.

Step 5

Front Wall